

Cascade Clamps

Cascade Clamps - Cascade Manufacturing Company was founded in Portland, Oregon in the year 1943. They started out as a small machine shop initially employing 4 people. Sales for their initial year of operation amounted to about $60,000. The first recorded sales revenues involved the machining and assembly of stainless-steel pipe fittings, valves and other parts. Throughout five years of operation, the business had expanded to forty workers and their annual sales volume had increased to 330 thousand dollars. These days, Cascade is among the top global makers in the material handling business.

Design and manufacturing of the company's initial hydraulic cylinder allowed this young business to aggressively engage in better business possibilities. Throughout the final sixty years, the industry of material handling has developed into a very complex field with Cascade proudly playing a part in its development. Cascade presently continues to develop as the premier provider of forklift accessories and numerous associated items. The company feels assured in their skill in order to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding buyer's requirements in the future and remaining competitive within the international market.

In the nineteen fifties, Cascade began designing, manufacturing and advertising hydraulic accessories. Manufacturing was finished in 1956 on a brand new facility to house all of the office and plant operations in Portland, Oregon at the company's current center of operations. Subsequent to fifteen years of business, total staff reached a hundred and eighty employees and sales had reached practically 2.3 million dollars.

In the year 1959 in Springfield, Ohio the next manufacturing plant was built. nineteen sixty marked Cascade's preliminary move into the international world of the material handling industry while the company established interest in the Netherlands, England, and Australia.

In the year 1964, the business altered its name to the Cascade Corporation. Then in the year 1965, the company went public with a preliminary offering of two hundred thousand shares of common stock. Ever since then the business has expanded its manufacturing services throughout the continental USA to the places Warner Robins Georgia to go along with its already current plants in Springfield, Ohio and Portland, Oregon. Cascade merchandise are fabricated worldwide due to numerous subsidiary operations. In 1994, a new facility was completed in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European headquarters. This facility is designed to be the essential customer service centre.

Cascade further expanded their product base in 1996 and the year 1997 after acquiring 5 firms, which included the Kenhar Corporation, the global leader in forks.
